

2014 Tampa Bay

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED,
AWARD-WINNING EVENT

Young Women's Leadership Symposium

Saturday, March 1, 2014
8:00 A.M. – 12:00 Noon

Columbia Restaurant
in Historic Ybor City
2117 E. 7th Ave, Tampa, FL

Mission

Promote the development of our community's future women leaders by providing them access and mentorship from influential business women in the Tampa Bay area. The Symposium's focus is on empowerment, leadership, personal brand management and taking charge of career/college goals.

Who Should Attend?

Motivated and energetic female high school students from the Tampa Bay area who want to spend a fulfilling morning with an inspirational and interactive guest speaker and female executives from elite organizations in the Tampa Bay area.

Symposium Co-Chairs

Kim Woollard (800.839.6328 x2004)
Ronda Woble (727.488.9345)
Shannon Kelly (813.261.7818)
www.ywlsymposium.com

Register Here

For more information contact Sammy Wann,
sammy.wann@floridadiversitycouncil.org

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Maja Kazazic

Maja's determination, self-confidence and absence of self-pity are the cornerstones of her life philosophy which have taken her from a 16 year-old survivor of the Bosnian War with life threatening injuries and an amputated leg to a successful college educated web developer in the U.S. Maja's blueprint for success is easily understood and, when applied, lays the foundation for success, both personally and professionally.

Title Sponsor

First in Financial Technology

Corporate Partners

